

Call for Nominations

International Society for Self and Identity Best Paper Award

The International Society for Self and Identity has created a new award for the best paper published in its journal, Self and Identity, in the previous calendar year.

We welcome your nominations for the best paper published in Volume 7, Issues 1-4, the 2008 issues of the journal. Self-nominations are welcome.

Nominations should include the title and authors of the article, and a paragraph explaining why you believe it is the best paper published in the journal in 2008. The best paper should have the strongest combination of theoretical contribution and methodological strengths.

Nominations are due January 15, 2008, and should be sent to the journal editor, Mark Alicke, alicke@oak.cats.ohiou.edu

The selection committee will consist of the editor and associate editors of Self and Identity. The winner will be announced at the ISSI preconference in Tampa, Florida, on Thursday, February 5, 2009.

A complete list of articles published in Self and Identity in 2008 is attached.
